

Lapstix™

Personal Privacy Screens

The most exciting thing to hit the promotional market in years has just arrived!

Don't Just Advertise, Lapvertise™!

LapStix™ makes an excellent promotional gift and advertisement vehicle and is unique because of the following things.

- Lapstix provides personal privacy for notebook and DVD players!
- Lapstix provides you with the best “billboard” in the promotional market to display a message or logo on!
- Lapstix will be seen by more people than common promotional items like pens, coffee mugs and key chains!
- Lapstix are very affordable and can be customized for various markets.
- Lapstix can also be used simply as a fan.

If you want your advertisement or logo to be seen in more places, by more people...Lapvertise it! Lapstix were designed to provide privacy when used in crowds or shade for when used in the sunlight. Lapstix is now available for purchase within the promotional industry.
